

EarthCam and SedonaWebcam.com Team Up to Deliver Breathtaking Live Views of Sedona

EarthCam, the world's favorite live webcam network, and SedonaWebcam.com introduce their new live streaming webcam, showcasing spectacular live views of Sedona, Arizona.

(PRWEB) October 25, 2013

Experience the unmatched beauty of Sedona, Arizona with live streaming webcam views, brought to people around the world by EarthCam, the world's favorite live webcam network, and SedonaWebcam.com. Perched high above the city, this high definition camera takes viewers on a sweeping virtual tour of this spectacular location.

Known for its captivating presence, people around the world travel to Sedona for a spiritual retreat among a piece of untouched nature. With this new webcam, complete with 360° panoramic views of the expansive red rock formations, visitors will be awed by the majesty of these unique mountains. The EarthCam Creative Team also created a custom interactive panorama, with special callouts for all the locations and landmarks that are visible from this aerial vantage point. Visitors will be treated to views including Oak Creek Canyon, Munds Mountain, Steamboat Rock and Thunder Mountain, which served as inspiration for the design of Space Mountain at Disneyland.

Jennifer Wesselhoff, the president and CEO of Sedona's Chamber of Commerce said, "These high definition live panoramic views of Sedona will introduce the beauty and intrigue of Sedona to thousands of potential new visitors to Sedona and Northern Arizona." "The live view vantage point on top of a mountain high above the city of Sedona is ideal to showcase Sedona's unique red rock vistas. We hope first time viewers will fall in love with Sedona's majesty and plan a visit to see and experience red rock country in person," she added.

Clarissa Ramirez, EarthCam Network Product Specialist, stated, "We can't think of a more spectacular location to launch our first live streaming Arizona webcam. We're thrilled to add this special camera to the EarthCam Webcam Network and share live views of this beautiful and mesmerizing space in nature with people around the world."
