

Gallery: Temple Bar is absolutely packed at the moment...

Are you heading in to Temple Bar to meet up with a few mates this evening? Well, good luck trying to find them among this lot...

Temple Bar isn't exactly everyone's cup of tea at the best of times. Still, that hasn't stopped hundreds, if not thousands, of people from cramming into Temple Bar's streets since 2pm this afternoon in order to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

We've been keeping an eye on the Dublin Pub Cam on EarthCam.com, which sits across the road from The Temple Bar, for the best part of the day and judging by the scenes, and the sounds, the festivities won't be dying down anytime soon...
