Earthcam.net released a time-lapse video today showing the decade-long construction of the 9/11 Memorial Museum, which was dedicated this morning and opens to the public next week.

“This commemorative timelapse honors the victims of 9/11 and is dedicated to their families and friends, with special gratitude to the first responders and the steadfast construction teams,” Brian Cury, founder and CEO of Earthcam, wrote in a letter accompanying the release.

“I hope this time-lapse serves as a way to recognize that for the 10 years of construction, there was constant progress made to rebuild these important 16 acres of America.”
