

They put a webcam on the grave of Andy Warhol

9/8/2013

Author: Netambulo

First, do not be alarmed by the holder, the camera is on the outside, focusing on the grave, not inside. Can you imagine if ...? ;)

On August 6 Andy Warhol would have been 85 years. In his memory, the Andy Warhol Museum has had the following occurrence: put a webcam focusing Warhol's grave 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. So, anyone worldwide can watch online streaming the tombstone where he lies Andy Warhol and the beings who come by.

During the day everything is OK. But what is disturbing at night, when shadows are strange movements around his grave. Quiet, in the light of the Sun is found to be at the balloons, flowers and others that are placed there ... or not

The webcam project is the result of an evil mind a collaboration between the Andy Warhol Museum and EarthCam, this initiative has been called Figment (Imaginary in Spanish) in reference to a famous Warhol quote: "I always thought I would like my tombstone was in white. No epitaph and nameless. Well, actually I would like to put an imaginary".

Then pull Andy, majete, you've got a webcam and gift to keep people watching you even killed. If the poor raise his head ... fixed it out on webcam and someone was watching.

Spanish article translated using Google Translate.

