The Mardi Gras EarthCam will allow everyone who's not here in Louisiana to join in on the fun of carnival season! There are several locations for parades in New Orleans, including the Cat's Meow balcony, Tropical Isle on Bourbon, Little Tropical Isle, and the Bourbon Street cam, so even if you don't live here, you can still be part of this Louisiana tradition. But remember, watch at your own risk, because Mardi Gras can sometimes be a little... wild. Parades have already started rolling, and will continue through Fat Tuesday. Happy Mardi Gras, y'all!
