We love EarthCam, because it gives us an opportunity to view events and places around the world that we would normally not be able to see.

The Summer Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil run from August 5 – 21, and we couldn't be more excited! EarthCam is letting us see what is going on for these historic games, and that includes a beautiful view of the world famous Copacabana Beach. Live coverage of the games will be presented on the NBC network, and will be streamed online, but it's always fun to see the unique things that are part of the Olympic experience.
