Peachy Ahoy: Visit Host of the 35th America's Cup Live on EarthCam

Christine M | May 29, 2017

The best sailors on the fastest boats from around the world have traveling to the Great Sound in Bermuda for the 35th America's Cup! Watch as teams battle for the oldest trophy in international sporting with live views from EarthCam's webcam.

The Royal Naval Dockyard in Bermuda was transformed into America's Cup Village for this prestigious event. Racing starts with the Louis Vuitton America's Cup Qualifiers on May 26 and the top Challenger will meet Defending Champions Oracle Team USA in the 35th America's Cup Match beginning on June 17th.

"Excitement has been building for the America's Cup 2017 to be held in Bermuda waters for the first time. Our Bermuda Cam overlooks the Race Course and will provide live coverage of the sailing," said Scott Stewart, Owner of Awesome View Vacation Apartments, where the webcam is located. "For those who can't be here in person, the Bermuda Cam will deliver exciting views of this world class event so people everywhere can be a part of the America's Cup experience."

Don't miss the 35th America's Cup Race in Bermuda, which kicks off today! Watch it all with our live webcam, thanks to Awesome View Vacation Apartments.
